Could God be calling you to serve in Poland like this team from New York did last year?

LWML members are encouraged to join a short-term mission team on July 14-25, 2011 to reach out to the lost with the assistance of Polish Lutherans through English Bible Camps in Poland.

During the first 3 days in Poland, the team will learn about mission work in Poland, experience some of Polish culture, work on final lesson planning and travel to their location. Monday through Friday the English camps will be conducted. Morning sessions will focus on learning English and Bible study. Afternoons will consist of activities such as crafts, music or sports depending on the team's gifts, experiences and interests.

Costs are estimated at $750-$950 per person (airfare not included). LWML Texas District members may apply for mission grant money to assist with costs.

Contact Debbie Curry at gospeloutreach@lwmltxdist.org to join this team, get more information, apply for grant money or invite Alice to speak.

Is God challenging you to share the gospel with the people of Poland or another location in the world?
